Seven Races, One of the Regular Events Having Been Divided.

"EVENING WORLD" SELECTIONS.

First Race -- Torchbearer, Sir Knight, Kentigerna.

Second Race -- Ramapo, Pickpocket, Banquet.

Third Race -- Glad, King Gold, Corn Cob.

Fourth Race -- George Beck, Speculation, Galloping King.

Fifth Race -- Doran, Libertine, Armitage.

Sixth Race -- Cherry Blossom colt, St. Vincent, Tympanie colt.

Seventh Race -- Amsterdam, Romping Girl, Pearlish colt.

Seven races will be decided at Gravesend to-day. There are no stale features on the card, but nevertheless the sport will be very interesting. The track will be heavy, but this will not affect betting, for the racegoers have been enabled to got a very fair line on the mud tracks during the past week.

The best race of the day ought to be the second, a handicap at a mile and a quarter. Banquet carries top weight of 119 pounds, conceding three to Ramapo, Prince Klamath and Lizzie. The finish should be an exceedingly close one between Ramapo, Banquet and Pickpocket.

Another good race will be the fourth, at a mile and a furlong, in which George Beck will meet Speculation, Galloping King, Emin Bey, Long Beach and others.

Roller, Dorian, Libertine, Armitage and Armitage should furnish an interesting contest at a mile in the fifth race, between the first, second, sixth and seventh races. None of the good ones start, as they are being reserved for the Great American to-morrow.

The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race -- Sweepstakes of $15 each, with $100 added, for maiden two-year-olds, selling five furlongs.
